“HOUSEKEEPING: WHEN DOES MESSY BECOME A LEASE VIOLATION?”

A special training covering housekeeping, lease violations and addressing problems

PRESENTER and TRAINER ANN ANDERSON has worked in the housing and disabilities field for 20 years. She worked for MassHousing as the Community Services Officer for Disabilities and Special Projects and later as Manager of the Community Services Department. She was involved in creating or restructuring the following programs: TAP (the Tenant Assistance Program), the DMH/DMR Set-Aside Program, the Community Housing Program for parents in early recovery and their children, and the Tenancy Preservation Program, a collaborative effort to resolve tenancy problems and avoid eviction for residents with mental impairments of all kinds. In addition, Ms Anderson has co-authored two Reasonable Accommodations handbooks. She currently provides training and technical assistance on a variety of housing/disability issues thru her consulting firm, ADA Housing and Services.
